Impact you can't place a value on...

- The strength of your business with more Eagle Scouts as company leaders
- The people who live full lives because a Scout saved their life
- Improved civic life of our country if more people lived by the Scout Oath and Law
- Responsible stewardship of our environment thanks to the care of Scouts
- Improved health and well being of our citizens because of Scouting's emphasis on being physically fit

About Henry A. Harkey

Henry A. Harkey was an active member of the Charlotte community serving in impactful roles within church, business and civic life. An Eagle Scout and executive committee member, he was a strong supporter and friend of the Mecklenburg County Council. Henry served as Troop 55's Scoutmaster for eight years and was awarded the Boy Scouts District Award of Merit and the Silver Beaver award for his Scouting commitment. The annual golf tournament honors Henry's legacy and service to Scouting and the community.
